A brief history of marine malacology in South Africa. (Kilburn.) R54,31
A preliminary survey of the estuaries on the south coast of South Africa, Cape Agulhas–Cape St Blaize, Mossel Bay, with particular reference to the fish fauna. (Harrison.) R54,285
A preliminary survey of estuaries on the south-west coast of South Africa, Cape Hangklip–Cape Agulhas, with particular reference to the fish fauna. (Harrison.) R54,257
Amphibian systematics, historical overview. (Channing.) R54,121
An historical overview of southern African mycology. (Eicker and Baxter.) R54,5
An overview of Chondrichthyan systematics and biodiversity in southern Africa. (Compagno.) R54,75
ARCHAEOLOGY
ROSEN, D.Z., LEWIS, C.A., and ILLGNER, P.M. Palaeoclimatic and archaeological implications of organic-rich sediments at Tiffindell ski resort, near Rhodes, eastern Cape Province, South Africa. R54,311
Archaeological and palaeoclimatic implications of organic-rich sediments at Tiffindell ski resort, near Rhodes, eastern Cape Province, South Africa. (Rosen, Lewis, and Illgner.) R54,311
Arctocephalus pusillus pusillus. Cape fur seals, concentrations of heavy metals (Cd, Cu, Pb, Ni & Zn) and organochlorine contaminants (PCBs, DDT, DDE & DDD) in the blubber. (Stewardson, De Kock and Saunders.) R54,205
Cape fur seals, impact of fur seal industry on distribution and abundance. (Stewardson.) R54,217
Cape fur seals, shark predation. (Stewardson.) R54,191
Avian systematics, historical review. (Craig.) R54,157

BAXTER, A.P., see EICKER, A.
Biodiversity and systematics, Chondrichthyan, overview. (Compagno.) R54,75
BIOGRAPHICAL MEMOIRS
Du Toit, Cornelius Albertus. (Bigalke.) R54,359
Birds, historical review of systematics in southern Africa. (Craig.) R54,157

BOLTON, J.J. Seaweed systematics and diversity in South Africa: an historical account. R54,167
BOTANY
BOLTON, J.J. Seaweed systematics and diversity in South Africa: an historical account. R54,167
EICKER, A. and BAXTER, A.P. An historical overview of southern African systematic mycology. R54,5
LINDER, H.P. and GRIFFITHS, C.L. Introduction and overview to special issue on systematic biology. R54,1
ROURKE, J.P. Plant systematics in South Africa: a brief historical overview, 1753–1953. R54,179
BRANCH, W.R. Reptile systematic studies in southern Africa: a brief history and overview. R54,137
BRINK, C. Effective numeracy. R54,247
BROWN, A.C. Marine invertebrate systematics and zoogeography in southern Africa: an historical overview. R54,21

Cape Agulhas–Cape St Blaize, fish fauna in estuaries. (Harrison.) R54,285
Cape fur seals, heavy metal and organochlorine contaminants in blubber. (Stewardson, De Kock and Saunders.) R54,205
Impact of the fur seal industry on the distribution and abundance. (Stewardson.) R54,217
Shark predation. (Stewardson.) R54,191
Cape Hangklip–Cape Agulhas, fish fauna in estuaries. (Harrison.) R54,257
CHANNING, A. Historical overview of amphibian systematics in southern Africa. R54,121
Chondrichthyan systematics and biodiversity, overview. (Compagno.) R54,75
COETZEE, M. The historical and current state of medical entomology systematics in South Africa. R54,65
COMPAGNO, L.J.V. An overview of Chondrichthyan systematics and biodiversity in southern Africa. R54,75
Concentrations of heavy metals (Cd, Cu, Pb, Ni & Zn) and organochlorine contaminants (PCBs, DDT, DDE & DDD) in the blubber of Cape fur seals Arctocephalus pusillus pusillus off the eastern Cape coast of South Africa. (Stewardson, De Kock and Saunders.) R54,205
Contaminants, organochlorine, (PCBs, DDT, DDE & DDD) in the blubber of Cape fur seals

Arctocephalus pusillus pusillus off the eastern Cape coast of South Africa. (Stewardson, De Kock and Saunders.) R54,205
CRAIG, A.J.F.K. Stuffed birds on trees: an historical review of avian systematics in southern Africa. R54,157
Crustacean systematics in South Africa – status and historical overview. (Griffiths.) R54,43

DE KOCK, A., see STEWARDSON, C.L.

Effective numeracy. (Brink.) R54,247
EICKER, A. and BAXTER, A.P. An historical overview of southern African systematic mycology. R54,5
Electron, structure. (Boeyens.) R54,323

Entomology systematics, medical, historical and current state. (Coetzee.) R54,65
Estuaries, Cape Agulhas–Cape St Blaize, survey. (Harrison.) R54,285
Cape Hangklip–Cape Agulhas, survey. (Harrison.) R54,257

Fish fauna in estuaries, Cape Agulhas–Cape St Blaize. (Harrison.) R54,285
Cape Hangklip–Cape Agulhas, survey. (Harrison.) R54,257
Fur seals, impact of the fur seal industry on the distribution and abundance. (Stewardson.) R54,217
Heavy metal and organochlorine contaminants in blubber. (Stewardson, De Kock and Saunders.) R54,205
Shark predation. (Stewardson.) R54,191
Fur seal industry, impact on the distribution and abundance of Cape fur seals. (Stewardson.) R54,217

GEOLOGY AND PALAEONTOLOGY
ROSEN, D.Z., LEWIS, C.A., and ILLGNER, P.M. Palaeoclimatic and archaeological implications of organic-rich sediments at Tiffindell ski resort, near Rhodes, eastern Cape Province, South Africa. R54,311
GRIFFITHS, C.L. Crustacean systematics in South Africa – status and historical overview. R54,43
GRIFFITHS, C.L., see also LINDER, H.P.

HARRISON, T.D. A preliminary survey of the estuaries on the south coast of South Africa, Cape Agulhas–Cape St Blaize, Mossel Bay, with particular reference to the fish fauna. R54,285
A preliminary survey of estuaries on the southwest coast of South Africa, Cape Hangklip–Cape Agulhas, with particular reference to the fish fauna. R54,257
Heavy metals (Cd, Cu, Pb, Ni & Zn) and organochlorine contaminants (PCBs, DDT, DDE & DDD) in the blubber of Cape fur seals Arctocephalus pusillus pusillus off the eastern Cape coast of South Africa. (Stewardson, De Kock and Saunders.) R54,205
Historical overview of amphibian systematics in southern Africa. (Channing.) R54,121

ILLGNER, P.M., see ROSEN, D.Z.
Insect systematics research in South Africa. (Scholtz.) R54,53
Invertebrate systematics and zoogeography, marine. (Brown.) R54,21

KILBURN, R.N. A brief history of marine malacology in South Africa. R54,31

LEWIS, C.A., see ROSEN, D.Z.
LINDER, H.P. and GRIFFITHS, C.L. Introduction and overview to special issue on systematic biology. R54,1

Malacology, marine, a brief history. (Kilburn.) R54,31
Marine invertebrate systematics and zoogeography in southern Africa: an historical overview. (Brown.) R54,21
Marine malacology in South Africa, a brief history. (Kilburn.) R54,31
MATHEMATICS
BRINK, C. Effective numeracy. R54,247
Medical entomology, systematics, historical and current state. (Coetzee.) R54,65
MICROBIOLOGY
COETZEE, M. The historical and current state of medical entomology systematics in South Africa. R54,65
Metals, heavy (Cd, Cu, Pb, Ni & Zn), in the blubber of Cape fur seals Arctocephalus pusillus pusillus off the eastern Cape coast of South Africa. (Stewardson, De Kock and Saunders.) R54,205
Mycology, systematic, an historical overview. (Eicker and Baxter.) R54,5

Numeracy, effective. (Brink.) R54,247

Organochlorine contaminants (PCBs, DDT, DDE & DDD) in the blubber of Cape fur seals Arctocephalus pusillus pusillus off the eastern Cape coast of South Africa. (Stewardson, De Kock and Saunders.) R54,205

Palaeoclimatic and archaeological implications of organic-rich sediments at Tiffindell ski resort, near Rhodes, eastern Cape Province, South Africa. (Rosen, Lewis, and Illgner.) R54,311
PHYSICS AND ENGINEERING
BOEYENS, J.C.A. Structure of the electron. R54,323
Plant systematics in South Africa: a brief historical overview, 1753–1953. (Rourke.) R54,179

Predation, shark, on Cape fur seals Arctocephalus pusillus pusillus. (Stewardson.) R54,191
Preliminary investigations of shark predation on Cape fur seals Arctocephalus pusillus pusillus from the eastern Cape coast of South Africa. (Stewardson.) R54,191

Reptile systematic studies in southern Africa: a brief history and overview. (Branch.) R54,137
Review of insect systematics research in South Africa. (Scholtz.) R54,53
